Thank You Celebration WellCare Foundation

Cheryl and Jeff Walsh graciously opened their home to board members, volunteers and those affiliated with WellCare Foundation for an evening of gratitude and appreciation. Guests enjoyed wine and hors d'oeuvres while mingling in the beautiful home designed by Al Beadle. Since 1999, WellCare Foundation has provided free continuous healthcare to single working mothers and their children not on state assistance who cannot afford the cost of insurance or needed health care. Founder and president Marge Ebeling was thrilled to honor each guest and their involvement, saying, "WellCare services are not a handout but a hand up. We are proud to provide continuing and preventative health care so both parent and child can stay healthy." The next major fundraiser, the 5th Annual Black Tie Bowling Ball, will be held on Saturday, November 10 at AMF Squaw Peak Lanes. Women Of Spirit American Red Cross

Morton's The Steakhouse and the American Red Cross announced the selection of the Valley winner in the nationwide Women of Spirit campaign. Marsha Petrie Sue, a renowned public speaker, award-winning author and community leader, was recognized during a wine dinner at Morton's of Scottsdale. A final all-star gala event honoring America's Women of Spirit will be held in Washington D.C. in September. "It is an incredible honor to be recognized by Morton's and the American Red Cross," said Petrie Sue. "I am grateful to be in a position to help others and wake up every day looking forward to inspiring people to make the most of their lives." Sylvanna Holt, sales and marketing manager for Morton's The Steakhouse, said, "We are thrilled to be taking part in this campaign and to have the opportunity to recognize one of the great leaders in our community. There were numerous well-qualified women to choose from, but Marsha stood out because both her professional and volunteer work is dedicated to enriching the lives of others." ■ — Claudia Wright
