Re: Your outstanding addition to our event!

Dear Marsha,

I cannot tell you how pleased we were that you had agreed to be our featured mid-day presenter at the last of our Quarterly Business Forums for the year. That pleasure quickly turned to excitement, delight, enthusiasm, and outright glee throughout your actual presentation! You were the hit of the day! Your message, delivered at signature Marsha Petrie Sue intensity, conveyed a breath of fresh air into the room that left everyone revitalized for the rest of the day and beyond!

We continue to receive emails and phone calls from the Forum attendees expressing their enjoyment of your presentation, and their gratitude for our arranging your appearance at the Forum. There is just one remaining issue keeping me up at night... what/who can we have prepared for the next Forum that could possibly compete with you?!?!

Sincerely,

Robyn
